CONSULTATION WITH STAKEHOLDERS

Project funders: completed required funding application and reporting procedures according to individual funders guidelines.

Project partners: regular meetings with specific organisations to each project area to discuss planning, content delivery and feedback debrief. Project delivery teams also feedback during and after the projects.

Project participants: Feedback through baseline and follow up surveys, supported by focus groups and individual interviews. This is incorporated into project reporting to partners and funders and the planning of future projects. Through the BEEE Valued project we have run participant advisory groups sessions for the public to feedback on the development of BEEE Creative activity.
