BEEE Creative CIO provides a range of arts activities and learning environments for children and young people and is committed to protecting children and young people who receive the services.

BEEE Creative CIO aims to ensure that all staff are aware of the overarching principles and effective channels of communication that guide our approach to safeguarding and child protection.

BEEE Creative CIO believes that a child or young person should never experience abuse of any kind. We have a responsibility to promote the welfare of all children and young people and to keep them safe. We are committed to practice in a way that protects them.

Legal framework

This policy has been drawn up on the basis of law and guidance that seeks to protect children, namely:

- The Children Act 1989
- The Children Act 2004
- Education Act 2002 (section 175)
- Hertfordshire Safeguarding Children Board Inter-agency Child Protection and Safeguarding Children Procedures
- Safeguarding Children and Safer Recruitment in Education (DfES 2006)
- Working Together to Safeguard Children (HM Government 2023)
- The Education (Pupil Information) (England) Regulations 2005

We recognise that:

- safeguarding is defined as: protecting children from maltreatment, preventing impairment of children's health or development, ensuring that children are growing up in circumstances consistent with the provision of safe and effective care and taking action to enable all children to have the best life chances

- child protection is defined as: the activity that is undertaken to protect specific children who are suffering or likely to suffer significant harm
- there is a need to safeguard children from neglect, emotional abuse, physical abuse and sexual abuse
- the welfare of the child is paramount, as enshrined in the Children Act 1989
- all children, regardless of age, disability, gender, racial heritage, religious belief, sexual orientation of identity, socio-economic status have a right to equal protection from all types of harm or abuse
- some children are additionally vulnerable because of the impact of previous experiences, their level of dependency, communication needs or other issue
- working in partnership with children, young people, their parents, carers and other agencies is essential in promoting young people's welfare.
